BRECKENRIDGE, CO---Offering something for everyone, from the most discerning diner to the family on a budget, Beaver Run Resort has its guests covered. With numerous options, guests of the Resort can choose from the award-winning Spencer's Restaurant to picking up a few groceries for their unit at G.B. Watson's Deli, and everything in between.

Overseeing Beaver Run's vast food & beverage operation is the charismatic property's Executive Chef, Bob Burden, affectionately known simply as Chef Bob. Though the flagship of Beaver Run is the recently renovated Spencer's Restaurant and Lounge, Chef Bob sees to it that all guests are satiated, from youngsters looking for mac 'n cheese to groups having a catered dinner for 1,000. For cooking enthusiasts wanting to learn from the best, Chef Bob hosts monthly cooking classes, changing the menu to represent cuisine from around the globe. In addition, Beaver Run offers Copper Top Restaurant and a number of après ski haunts and bars including Tiffany's Sports Pub, Copper Top Bar, the Pool Bar and the aforementioned Spencer's Lounge.

Spencer's Restaurant has garnered both local and national acclaim since its renovation and rebirth in 2002, laying its claim as one of the finest steak and seafood restaurants in the Rocky Mountains. Accompanying its fine dining, Spencer's offers an award-winning wine selection and offers a private dining room for intimate groups of 10 to 16.
