BOB BURDEN, BEAVER RUN'S CHARISMATIC EXECUTIVE CHEF

BRECKENRIDGE, CO---Not only has Bob Burden, Beaver Run Resort & Conference Center's Executive Chef, elevated the property's food & beverage operation to new heights, he has done so with a flair and enthusiasm unequaled by his peers.

Burden, affectionately known simply as Chef Bob, oversees Beaver Run's three restaurants and its sizeable banquet operation. Whether dining at Beaver Run's flagship restaurant, the award-winning Spencer's, or partaking in a group barbeque under the towering peaks of Breckenridge, the accommodating staff of Beaver Run, under the watchful eye of Chef Bob, equally caters to guests' wants and needs.

In addition to directing Beaver Run's extensive lineup of eateries, Chef Bob teaches monthly cooking classes in his always-entertaining and unassuming fashion. With his ever-changing menu, Chef Bob leads classes through the intricacies of preparing five-course meals while continually imparting the joys of cooking. Following the hands-on demonstration, class members feast on the bounty of their work in Spencer's private dining room, accompanied by carefully selected wine pairings for each course. The monthly cooking classes cost $75 per person, and reservations are required.
